1.1 The aims of this agreement are to:

1.1.1. give effect to PSCBC Resolution No. 11 of 1998 on full time shop stewards in the public service;

1.1.2. provide for the appointment of full-time shop stewards (FTSS) in the public health and welfare sector;

1.1.3. to enhance sound labour relations in the public health and welfare sector and assist in the delivery of services;

1.1.4. develop capacity among trade union officials in order to engage effectively in the labour relations arena as provided for in the legislation regulating employment;

1.1.5. ensure co-operation between the employer and FTSS as provided for in Clause 4.4.1 of Resolution 11 of 1998;

1.1.6. provide guidelines for the detailed agreements between parties at national and provincial departmental level.
2. APPLICATION

2.1 This agreement applies to:

(i) the Employer; and

(ii) the Trade Union parties admitted to the Public Health and Welfare Sector Bargaining Council.

3. THE ELECTION, NOMINATION AND APPOINTMENT OF FULL-TIME SHOP STEWARDS (FTSS)

3.1. Eligibility for appointment as a FTSS

In order to be appointed as a FTSS a person must:

3.1.1 be a permanent employee in the public health and welfare sector and have been nominated by the trade union;

3.1.2 be a member in good standing of the trade union making the nomination; and

3.1.3 not hold a critical or managerial (including junior, middle and senior management level) post at the workplace or be employed at a level higher than level 8. In determining whether a post is critical the following criteria should be considered:

3.1.3.1 the type of service provided;

3.1.3.2 the nature of work performed by the employee;
3.1.3.3. the current and expected allocation of resources; and

3.1.3.4. the non-availability of similar skills to replace the employee.

3.1.4. The limitations stipulated in clause 3.1.3 above may be lifted in exceptional circumstances by agreement of the respective trade union and the employer represented by the head of the department. In considering whether an exception ought to be made, the parties may take into account the following:

3.1.4.1. the burden and complexity of labour relations work required to be performed by the FTSS;

3.1.4.2. the nature and type of negotiations that the FTSS will be involved in;

3.1.4.3. the nature and number of disputes that may arise

3.2. The number of FTSS

3.2.1. The number of full-time shop stewards to be appointed shall be in a ratio of 1 : 5000 workers in the health and welfare sector and is set out in the table in ANNEXURE A,

3.2.2. The total number of members will be determined as per the audited figures as determined at the AGM.

3.2.3. The number of FTS will be determined in terms of the vote weights of trade unions determined by the Secretary of Council in accordance with the constitution.
3.2.4 The elected FTSS will be allocated to the national departments and provinces in proportion to their vote weights in Council. The total number of FTSS for health and welfare departments are indicated in the table attached hereto as Annexure A.

3.3. Notification of the elected FTSS

3.3.1. Once the trade union parties have nominated and elected their FTSS, the trade unions must notify the respective departments in writing of the names of the employees who have been elected as FTSS. A copy of this notification shall be sent to the Council.

3.3.2. The relevant department may be allowed a maximum of 30 (thirty) days for the executing authority or his/her delegate to release the FTSS subject to an extension of a further 30 (thirty) days by agreement of the parties.

3.3.3. In its notification the trade union must specify the contact details of each of its FTSS, including the FTSS’s telephone and fax numbers

3.4. Appointment of the FTSS

3.4.1. Once the respective departments have received the notification, the appointment of the FTSS will be duly confirmed.

3.4.2. Such appointment will be by way of a secondment to their respective trade union.
3.4.3. The national and provincial departments undertake to inform all facility heads by means of a circular distributed to all health and welfare institutions/facilities of the contact details of the appointed FTSS for the respective province.

3.4.4. The trade unions shall in turn inform all its members of the contact details of the appointed FTSS for the province concerned.

3.5 Period of Appointment

3.5.1. The FTSS is appointed for the period of one (1) year and may be re-elected and accordingly the FTSS’s secondment may be extended.

3.5.2. Protection of the employment of the FTSS:
   3.5.2.1. At the end of period of office, the Full Time Shop Stewards will return to the grade and remuneration attached to that grade.

3.5.2.2. Should the FTSS be elected or nominated to serve a further term, the position of the FTSS will be protected unless circumstances dictate otherwise. In such circumstances the employment of the FTSS remains protected.

3.5.2.3. The trade union concerned will be consulted on the suggested changes and the parties will agree on the alternative post within the staff establishment prior to any final decision in this regard.
3.5.3 The FTSS may be appointed to this position for a period of three years but will be seconded by the employer to the trade union for one calendar year reviewed annually by both parties, commencing 1 January and ending 31 December. In the event that the agreement is implemented during the course of the year the FTSS will be released to commence with his/her activities for the remainder of the year.
